

Arro Corporation is a single source for contract manufacturing, processing, logistics and warehousing services. Arro is comprised of four separate operating facilities offering liquid and dry processing services for food and industrial grade products. In addition, Arro Transport provides bulk trucking services throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Food Processing Division

Arro's Chicago based Food Processing Division offers the following services:

Dry Processing

Custom blending with liquid addition capabilities

Particle size reduction

Vertical and horizontal form fill and seal packaging

Composite can packaging

Bag, drum, box and super sack packaging

Repackaging, reprocessing and quality correction services

Liquid Processing

Custom processing using blend tanks and cook-up kettles

Can, pail, bottle-in-box, drum and tote packaging

Ample steam capabilities and hot rooms to handle viscous products

Repackaging, reprocessing and quality correction services

Nitrogen blanketing

Bulk Handling & Storage

500,000 gallons of storage on site via heated and agitated tanks ranging from 4,000 to 45,000 gallons

Ability to handle dry and liquid rail cars and bulk trucks

Ample rail track storage

Bulk trucking services provided by Arro Transport

Over 80,000 square feet of processing and warehouse space

Analytical & Quality Services

Arro's in-house lab offers comprehensive testing services

AIB Excellent Rating

Full HACCP and Quality Systems in place

For more information, please contact Tim McNicholas (tmcnicholas@arro.com) or Pat Gaughan (pgaughan@arro.com) at 708 352 8200.

www.arro.com